

Homage To Brighton Returns

for another afternoon of music, poetry and song celebrating Brighton and its peoples support of religious and gender tolerance, racial harmony, equality and those in need.

Saturday 6th October 2018

upstairs at the Nightingale Theatre

The Grand Central

1.30pm to 4.30 pm

doors 1pm

blues 'n folk

and 15 poets with their own distinctive voices

entrance by donation on door

Please give generously if possible - all 3 charities

need our help to continue helping those in need all proceeds to be shared equally between

Sanctuary on Sea,

First Base

and Whitehawk Food Bank

Organised by local members of the worldwide group 100thousandPoets and Musicians for Change, this performance will be one of hundreds taking place around the world during September / October. There will be a bar throughout the Programme of events.

There is a flight of stairs up to the venue.